Profile

David graduated in 1979 and joined Mellersh & Harding to work in their West End office in St James, London W1, in their Offices Department. After five years he moved to Hong Kong to work for Hongkong Land where he helped to set up their Marketing Department. In 1983 he returned to London to work for John D Wood in their offices department.

In 1986 David joined Stiles Harold Williams as an Associate, having responsibility for the agency activities in the Worthing Office. In 1989 he was made a Director of SHW and ran the firm's agency operations in Worthing and Chichester. In 1992 he relocated to the Brighton office where he now heads up the Business Space Department with responsibility for the agency operations for the Brighton, Eastbourne and Worthing Offices and became Regional Head of the Sussex coastal offices of SHW in 2014. David is a shareholder and Partner of the firm.

Project Experience

David has experience covering a full range of agency work including:

- Acquisition and disposals for private individuals, plc's and institutions
- Strategic property advice on portfolio disposals
- Strategic advice on the asset management of industrial estates
- Development advice
- Advice to local government development agencies on property related issues

Since being at Stiles Harold Williams David has worked extensively in the industrial sector in both East and West Sussex, acting for both landlords and tenants. He has been involved in two of the largest industrial lettings on the south coast in recent years in Bognor and Worthing where he let 154,000 sq ft and 175,000 sq ft respectively.
