Profile

Sarah Webb joined Stiles Harold Williams in 2004 as the Company's first HR Manager responsible for all aspects of employment. In 2007 she became a Fellow of the Chartered Institute of Personnel & Development.

Sarah began her career in 1993 as a Management trainee for Sainsbury's having completed a degree in Management Science at Warwick University. She worked as a Branch Personnel Manager in a number of different stores and gained her CIPD qualification during this time. In 1999 she joined William Reed Publishing, a business to business publisher, to establish a new HR function and implement personnel policies.

Throughout her time at SHW Sarah has actively participated in a network of HR professionals within the property sector, with members representing most of the top 20 firms in the sector. The network undertakes benchmarking, shares best practice and holds regular networking meetings.

Project Experience

Sarah has experience of all aspects of HR, including introducing and establishing a performance review process, delivering training solutions for managers, advising on employment law, recruitment and selection techniques and strategic HR.
