

H A Cox BSc (Hons) MRICS Director

Howard re-joined Stiles Harold Williams in 2004 having qualified with the company in April 1998. Prior to re-joining, Howard worked in London with Knight Frank and BNP Paribas Real Estate (formerly ATIS REAL Weatheralls and Weatherall Green & Smith). Howard was involved with portfolio and secured lending valuations of commercial property located throughout the country with an emphasis on the south east.

Howard now specializes in the valuation of commercial property, residential and residential development property located in the south east and in particular East and West Sussex. In addition he has specialist knowledge in the valuation of Garden Centres, the Serviced Office sector and Educational property. Recent valuations in the Educational sector include Ovingdean Hall School, Ovingdean, Brighton.

Howard has acted for a wide range of clients ranging from large property companies and institutions, the High Street Banks, private investors, charitable organisations and solicitors. Howard has acted for local and regional firms of solicitors as a Joint Single Expert and reported to the Courts accordingly.

Born and educated in Brighton & Hove, he has an extensive knowledge of the area and is registered in the Sweet & Maxwell Expert Witness Directory.