

Mark McFadden MRICS ACI Arb FRSA
Chartered Surveyor

Mark joined the Brighton Office of Stiles Horton Ledger (now Stiles Harold Williams) in 1987 and qualified as a Chartered Surveyor in 1992, based in our Eastbourne office. Moving to the Crawley Office in 1995, he carried out valuations and landlord and tenant advice throughout Surrey and Sussex, including the valuation of Petrol Filling Stations and Car Dealerships across the South East and was promoted to Associate in 1995. He moved back to the Eastbourne Office in 1997, where he is now based as Head of Office and responsible for the firm's Professional work in East Sussex, east of Newhaven. He was made a Director in 1998 and became an Associate Member of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators in 2000.

He has widespread experience of carrying out Asset Valuations for lending institutions, businesses, developers, local authorities and professional advisors on a comprehensive range of commercial and residential property, including development schemes, throughout the South East. A major part of his work involves advising both occupier and investor clients on rent reviews and lease renewals under the 1954 Landlord & Tenant Act on a wide range of commercial properties. He has appeared as an Expert Witness in the High Court, provided expert reports for litigation and has represented both landlords and tenants at Arbitration, as well as advising on a broad sphere of property matters.

Born and educated in Eastbourne, he has extensive knowledge of the town and surrounding region and has been a member of the Council of Management of Eastbourne and District Chamber of Commerce since 1996. He was elected a Fellow of the Royal Society for the encouragement of Arts, Manufactures & Commerce (RSA) in 2004 and is a member of the Royal Institution of Chartered Surveyors Expert Witness Registration Scheme and also registered in the Sweet & Maxwell Expert Witness Directory.
